WHY INVEST IN THIS OPPORTUNITY

- Strategic Central & Northwestern Illinois Locations – The properties are positioned in established Illinois communities, with Athens located approximately 13 miles from Springfield, the state capital, and Galva approximately 40 miles from the Quad Cities MSA and 50 miles from Peoria.

- Strategic Roadway Exposure & Accessibility – Athens is located near the intersection of IL-29 and IL-123, while Galva occupies a hard-corner location along SW 2nd Street and U.S. Route 34, the area's main thoroughfare.

- 100% Occupied by Dollar General – Both properties are leased to Dollar General Corporation, an established, publicly traded national discount retailer operating 20,400+ stores across 43 states.

- Investment-Grade Tenant Credit – Dollar General carries an investment-grade S&P credit rating of BBB, providing strong corporate credit backing and tenant stability.

- Proven Operating History & Recent Lease Extensions – Both locations demonstrate established operating histories, with recent lease extensions reflecting Dollar General's continued commitment to the properties.

- Built-In Rental Growth – Both leases feature three 5-year renewal options with contractual 10% rental increases at each option period, providing predictable long-term income growth.

- Strong Store Performance – The Athens property ranks in the 92nd percentile in Illinois and 85th percentile nationally on Placer.ai, demonstrating exceptional store performance.

WHY INVEST IN THIS OPPORTUNITY

- Attractive Low Rent & Price Point – Both properties offer relatively low rent and acquisition price points, presenting an attractive entry opportunity for net lease investors.

- Strong Local Trade Area Fundamentals – Athens benefits from an average household income of $114,039 within five miles, while Galva serves a local population of approximately 2,470 residents and a 5-mile trade area population of 3,101.

- Limited Nearby Retail Competition – Both properties benefit from limited competing retail options in their respective trade areas, supporting their positioning as convenient neighborhood destinations.

- Long-Term Income Investment – The combination of established investment-grade tenancy, recent lease extensions, contractual rental growth, attractive acquisition pricing and strategic local positioning provides an opportunity for durable, long-term rental income.

MARKET OVERVIEW

Galva, IL

Galva is a community located in southern Henry County in northwestern Illinois, approximately 38 miles from Peoria and 25 miles north of Galesburg. The city is part of the broader Henry County area, which is included in the Davenport-Moline-Rock Island (Quad Cities) Metropolitan Statistical Area and has a population of approximately 48,000 people, while there are approximately 2,470 people in Galva. Galva offers residents and businesses the benefits of a small-town environment while maintaining convenient access to several of northwestern Illinois' regional economies.

Strategically positioned along U.S. Route 34, Galva provides direct regional connectivity throughout Henry County and the surrounding area. According to the City of Galva, the community is within 45 minutes of major regional hubs including Galesburg, Peoria, and the Quad Cities. Galva has also historically served as a regional rail hub, having been laid out along the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad, with the Rock Island Railroad later also passing through the city.

Galva and the surrounding Henry County area are known for their strong community atmosphere, affordable cost of living, and rich Swedish heritage, with the city itself named after Gavle, Sweden, its sister city, and approximately 80 percent of the town's population of Scandinavian descent. The region also benefits from a variety of recreational and historic amenities, including the Bishop Hill State Historic Site, a National Historic Landmark and open-air museum located approximately 8 miles from Galva, that preserves an 1846 Swedish immigrant colony and attracts visitors for its historic buildings, museum, and seasonal festivals.

ATHENS , IL

Athens is a growing community located in Menard County in central Illinois, approximately 13 miles northeast of Springfield, the Illinois state capital. The city is part of the broader Springfield, IL Metropolitan Statistical Area, which has a population of approximately 206,000 people, while there are approximately 2,000 people in Athens. Athens offers residents and businesses the benefits of a small-town environment while maintaining convenient access to Central Illinois' largest metropolitan economy.

Strategically positioned along Illinois Routes 29 and 123, Athens provides direct regional connectivity throughout Menard and Sangamon counties and the greater Springfield MSA. The community is approximately 13 miles from downtown Springfield, home to state government, Memorial Health System, HSHS St. John's Hospital, and Springfield Public Schools, among the region's largest employers. Athens is within commuting distance of these and other major employment centers throughout the Springfield market.

Athens and the surrounding Menard County area are known for their strong community atmosphere, quality schools, and affordable cost of living. The region also benefits from a variety of recreational and historic amenities, including the Sangamon Valley Trail, a 13.5-mile rail trail with a trailhead in Athens, and Lincoln's New Salem State Historic Site, a reconstructed 1830s village where Abraham Lincoln lived and began his political career, located just northwest of the city and a significant regional tourist attraction.
